

OPEN CALL

The Danish Arts Council invites applications from 4 professional artists for the project Nordic Artists with Multicultural Background.

OBJECTIVE

Nordic Artists with a Multicultural Background should be seen as a networking platform - as part of a desire to promote an inclusive Nordic publicity, where both new and established artists with a multicultural background are lifted into the social debate and have the opportunity to share their experiences and background through a workshop and an artist summit.

WHO CAN APPLY?

You are a professional artist with a multicultural background. You live in one of the Nordic countries and have a strong connection with one or more countries outside Europe. We especially encourage artists who use their cultural background in their artistic expression to apply.

Send CV and a description of one of your profile projects within the subject to The Nordic House in the Faroe Islands on nlh@nlh.fo no later than March 1st 2019.

For questions, contact Gunn Hernes on nlh@nlh.fo.

BACKGROUND

Artists from a total of 5 Nordic countries (including Denmark) are going to think through an artist workshop in Copenhagen and an artistic summit in Iceland on how their background has a place in the Nordic artistic landscape. The artists are recruited through the Danish Arts Council and the Council's sister organizations in the Nordic countries.

PARTICIPATION

You are are obligated to participate in the following events - all paid for by the project:

- Workshop in Copenhagen in week 18 2019 with presentation of your art and how to use your background in your art (2 days).
- Artist summit in Iceland in week 37 2019 (3 days).
- Possible participation in a conference in week 49 2019 (2 days), where the outcome of the project is to be presented to the Nordic Council of Ministers.

YIELD

- You will receive a fee of DKR 5000 for participation.
- You will receive travel expenses as well as a stay at the artist meeting in Iceland and the workshop in Copenhagen .
- You will expand your artistic network at Nordic level and will help to put the qualities and professionalism of the art on the agenda.
- You will help to highlight the challenges and barriers you might experience as an artist with a multicultural background and make recommendations for a possible change of current practice.
